Dear Lucy,

Thank you for sharing Between the Line with the 2019 National Playwrights Conference at the Eugene O'Neill Theater Center.

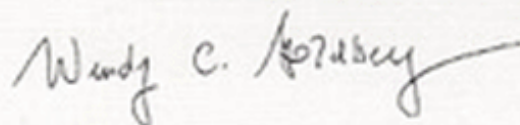

After careful consideration, we ultimately felt that the National Playwrights Conference is not quite the right developmental opportunity for your play at this time. Regretfully, we have taken it out of the running for inclusion in our upcoming summer season.

Our offices welcomed over 1,400 submissions this application cycle, and each script was read cover-to-cover by our reviewers. Year after year, we are humbled by the quality and quantity of the work that is shared with us: we recognize the heart that goes into the making of each play we receive, and we remain grateful for the time we spend with every one of them.

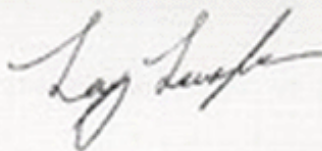

Please know that our reading team expressed great admiration for Between the Line — admiration that we shared, too. We hope you will continue to keep us in mind as you write, and we would like to enthusiastically encourage you to apply again next season. Your voice, and your ideas, have made a significant impact on our office.

Thank you again for the opportunity to spend this time with your work. As always, we wish you and your play nothing but the very best moving forward.

Warm regards,

Wendy C. Goldberg
